

Updated closures, cancellations and postponements at the Venice Art Center

The health and safety of all who enter the Venice Art Center remain our top priority. As information about the coronavirus (COVID-19) continues to evolve, we want to keep you apprised of developments that affect our offerings at VAC.

Based on recommendations from Governor Ron DeSantis and CDC, we have decided to cancel and postpone our upcoming classes and close the Venice Art Center starting Tuesday, March 17th through Friday, April 17th.
Re-opening April 20th unless further need to stay closed arises.

This is the updated cancelled and postponed event list:

If you have purchased a class, lecture or an event ticket, please consider donating the price of your class or ticket to the Art Center to help with the costs of staffing and upkeep during this difficult time. VAC's main source of income is classes and this cancellation will dramatically impact the center. Your generous donation will help immensely. You may also request a refund. For a donation, credit or refund on any educational programs or tickets, please send an email to:

Jilla@veniceartcenter.com

We ask for your patience in receiving refunds or credits, but be assured we will process everything as quickly as possible.

We apologize deeply for this unfortunate change in plans. We encourage you to continue monitoring information from the Florida Department of Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and Sarasota Memorial Hospital.
